

Pink is NOT the new Orange!

Ready to go

The volunteer team from Chelsea SES are out and about at the intersection of Centre Dandenong Road and Warrigal Road in Cheltenham, rattling the cans to raise the much needed funds to continue our work assisting our community.

Just collect the money, that's the long & short of it

As we mentioned, in case you were wondering why we are so far from home, the City of Kingston has only 2 locations for organisations to raise money in this way, where we are today in Cheltenham and at the intersection of Edithvale Road and Station Street in Edithvale.

Victoria State Emergency Service: Chelsea Unit

Written by Administrator

Sunday, 16 November 2014 09:54 -

When the Police arrived at the scene, they found a car that had been involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

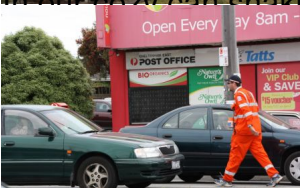

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.

The car was involved in a collision with a building. The car was damaged and the driver was injured. The Police were called to the scene by a member of the public who had seen the accident.